

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:
GENESIS 360, LLC AWARDED $1.2 MILLION DOLLAR CONTRACT
FROM THE ARMY CORPS OF ENGINEERS

Genesis 360 recently won a competitive bid for a 1.2-million-dollar federal contract from the Army Corps of Engineers. The work consists of excavation of levee slides, clearing and grubbing, placement of compacted fill, establishment of turf, borrow pit development, maintenance of access roads and other incidental work in West Feliciana Parish. The period of performance is 230 days.

Genesis 360 President, Craig Stevens stated “Genesis 360 is excited to work with the Army Corp of Engineers once again. We have become a house-hold name with the Army Corp of Engineers as well as other commercial and federal agencies due to our proven track record to complete projects ahead of schedule and under budget. We are also passionate about infrastructure and preserving our levees along the Mississippi.”

Stevens is an Opelousas, Louisiana native and the owner of Genesis 360. After 25 years of service in the US Air Force serving in the 93rd Bomb Squadron, Stevens retired as a Captain and started Genesis 360, LLC in 2011. In 2017, Genesis 360 received its 8(a) certification and Veteran Owned certification from the Small Business Administration. Craig has a Bachelor of Science degree in Information Technology and is also a graduate of Leadership Ascension and New Orleans Emerging Leaders. Genesis 360 is a proud supporter of the community and Stevens currently serves or has served on the board for the Baton Rouge Food Bank, Boys & Girls Club, Dream Teachers, BREC, BR Home Builders Association, Ascension Chamber, Better Business Bureau, and LABI. Genesis 360 has been selected as 2022 Small Business of the Year by Baton Rouge Business Report, and Stevens has been selected as 2022 SBA Business Person of the Year. He is also a Rotarian and member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity.
